Re: Asbestos docket proposals
ADM file no. 2003-47

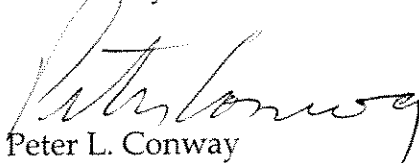

Dear Supreme Court Justices:

I am a practicing lawyer but I am not currently representing any clients in court litigation where the client has suffered a personal injury.

I believe that the establishment of special asbestos dockets is a mistake. As much as possible, laws should be uniform. If a "special docket is appropriate for asbestos litigation, it should be appropriate for all other tort cases and similar dockets should be developed for all plaintiffs whose injuries may not yet be fully known.

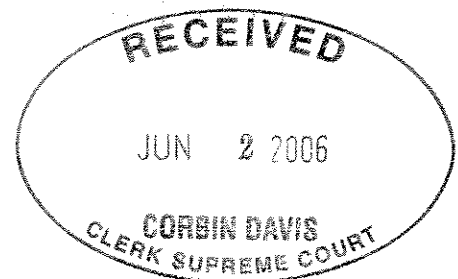

Thank you for your consideration of my comments.

Yours truly,

Peter L. Conway
